Corporate Partner Program 2024

TO SUPPORT, STRENGTHEN, AND ADVANCE EMS
Why Partner with NAEMT

NAEMT is at the forefront of national and global discussions and initiatives that impact the EMS industry. We address the clinical and operational needs of EMS agencies and their personnel through innovative programs on key issues including mental health resilience, leadership development, recruiting a diverse workforce, as well as our globally recognized education courses.

NAEMT is a national leader in advocating on behalf of the EMS industry. Our goal is to ensure EMS is receiving the resources and support needed to help our patients and communities, and protect our personnel.

Our members work in all types of EMS delivery models and serve as clinicians, managers, educators and medical directors. We have a direct reach to more than 200,000 EMS professionals worldwide.

NAEMT At-A-Glance (2023 Statistics)

NAEMT education programs:
- Train more than 155,000 students in 90 countries.
- Offered at more than 2,400 training centers worldwide
- Taught by approximately 18,000 EMS instructors
- Recognized by the National Registry of EMTs (NREMT) and accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Pre-hospital Continuing Education (CAPCE)

Corporate Partner Levels

Corporate partners are recognized by levels commensurate to the level of support within a 12-month period. In exchange for financial investment in NAEMT, Corporate Partners can select advertising, marketing, sponsorship or program development opportunities to meet the needs of their companies.

All NAEMT Corporate Partners receive:
- Recognition on the NAEMT website, at the NAEMT Annual Meeting, and in the quarterly NAEMT News printed newsletter.
- All NAEMT published content.
- Gold level and above will be recognized as a Featured Corporate Partner on the NAEMT homepage.
- Use of NAEMT Corporate Partner logo.

EMS Agencies Finding New Ways to Alleviate EMS Workforce Shortages

With the ongoing pandemic and increased demand for EMS services, agencies are exploring innovative strategies to attract and retain qualified personnel. This includes offering competitive compensation packages, investing in employee training and development, and creating a more supportive work environment. By focusing on these areas, they aim to ensure a stable and skilled workforce.

How to Create a Culture of Workforce Engagement in EMS

Employee engagement is crucial for maintaining a motivated and productive workforce. It involves creating an environment where employees feel valued, connected, and invested in their work. This can lead to increased job satisfaction, reduced turnover, and improved patient care outcomes.

National Report on Engagement and Satisfaction in EMS Reveals What EMS Personnel Want from Employers

EMS organizations are under increasing pressure to address the needs of their workforce. A recent report identified that employees want better work-life balance, increased opportunities for career advancement, and a supportive culture that values their contributions.

Engagement in EMS

Culture of Workforce

Turnover at EMS agencies has been high, contributing to ongoing labor shortages. This has led many organizations to reassess their recruitment strategies and focus on creating a more compelling workplace culture.

Innovative Recruitment

Some best practices and case studies are available to guide EMS agencies in attracting and retaining new talent. This includes leveraging social media, offering flexible work arrangements, and investing in employee development programs.

RECRUITMENT

The recruitment process should be designed with the future of EMS in mind, ensuring that potential employees understand the significance of their role in the community.

How to Build Mental Health Resilience

Mental Health Resilience Officer Course

The MHRO course is supported by FirstNet®, Built with AT&T. Participants will receive a certificate of completion, six (6) hours of CAPCE-eligible credits, and a toolkit to help them answer the call for help when the community most needs it.

Engagement and Satisfaction

Nearly 1,300 paramedics, advanced EMTs, and emergency medical technicians completed a survey in 2021 to gauge their feelings of satisfaction and engagement. The results painted a picture of a challenging work environment, with many respondents expressing a need for better work-life balance and opportunities for growth.

Employee engagement is the level of enthusiasm and dedication an employee feels toward their organization. It includes aspects such as commitment, loyalty, and connection to the workplace. Engagement in EMS is about being part of a team that helps others, providing a sense of purpose and meaning.

EMS personnel have sounded the alarm about ongoing labor shortages, and the reasons for this are multifaceted. Some EMS agencies are offering higher pay and more comprehensive benefits, while others are addressing work-life balance and the need for professional development.
